SUDAN CAMPAIGN SOLDIER'S LETTERS. NAHMAN FAKES
634	Often sold as true covers, these were exposed by Peter Smith and Dr Byam in QC 50 (in English, 1957) and L'OP 100 (in French, 1959) – both available on our website – as forgeries using a genuine 3m on 2p Due surcharge from troops serving in Sudan. The classic error was mis-spelling of “Feild” in “Field Service”. Addressed to Victor or Henry Nahman, brothers who were genuine collectors taken in by a postal employee, many bear a monogram of V/N indicating their source in the Victor Nahman collection.
