Dear Lou.

This afternoon I received your nice, kind and long letter. Many thanks for it and also for your good wishes. I wish you also a very happy birthday and very many happy returns. I am so glad you are so well, and that you are enjoying yourself so much. I wish I could see such lovely places, it would be delightful. We are having such nice weather, it is just like summer. Do you remember last Summer when we were sitting in the garden with Sister A. I have not seen Sister since three weeks, but I shall go and see her next Sunday. She sent me a letter for you, to translate, which you will find, on the other page. I did not have time, before now to write it, as we are rather busy in the hotel. So you will excuse me that I wailed so long with it, won't you?

When you were in the Hague, you saw our little Queen did

Accept this kindly wish from me,
Good health, long life, prosperity.
