Theo. A. Gessler Esq.

Dear Sir;

I take the liberty in writing to you these few lines in which I wish to thank you for your kind letter, which I received yesterday on my arrival from upper Egypt, and which made me happy to know by it that you are with Mrs. Gessler in the best of health.

On account of the Swarab

They are authentic and they are guaranteed to be so, I have not much trust in the knowledge of the man you showed him because when I bought them I showed them to a friend who is considered to be well qualified and real expert and that he spent nearly his life in dealing with Scarabs & he said by them they are genuine. I know & I saw many European Egyptologist who can read the writings and pretend to know great deal they bought scarabs quite false & thought that they were genuine. The knowledge of the antiquity of the Scarab is not based on a man that writes & reads only but is only based on dealing to be able to know the genuine from the false ones.

and if you think they are not worth the money. The money is ready to be paid back if you
